Nundle Australia Day Celebration

Some 120 enthusiastic people gathered at the Nundle Public School recently to celebrate Australia Day and to witness the acknowledgement of citizens who have contributed significantly to our community.

It was an honour and privilege to welcome our Australia Day Ambassador, Mr John Harper and his delightful wife, Michelle, to Nundle. John and Michelle hail from Stockinbingal, Southern NSW where they have a wheat and sheep farm. In 2006 John began Mate helping Mate, a programme based on social and creative self-help strategies for managing difficult times and which revolves around the benefits of mateship and a sense of community. Having suffered from depression himself, John now voluntarily gives a lot of his time to speak at rural health, drought and general agribusiness events, receiving many accolades and awards for the work he is doing. John urged us all to think positively - he says "when we think negatively, our problems get bigger and WE get smaller."

A very pragmatic man, John says he is "an ordinary bloke, humbled to be asked to be an Australian Ambassador." AWARDEES FOR 2018

WUNDA JAFFER WILLIAMS

A special part of our programme is the speeches made by some of our young people. This year we had three excellent youth speakers who gave us some of the reasons they are proud to be Aussies.

JESSICA BORCHARD spoke about equal opportunities, the diversity of opportunity, and the freedom to attend school.

WILL ARCHER loves living in a great community and a free country and is grateful for the right to a good education and to feel safe.

JAMES SAMPSON is very grateful for access to clean water, good food, a good education with limitless possibilities and the fact that we, in Australia, can enjoy wide open spaces with minimal air pollution.

Our Ambassador was very generous with his praise for these young people and made the comment that whilst the young people do have many good opportunities it is the responsibility of adults to maintain these opportunities and to encourage respect for people's differences.

For many years, sheep shearing has been a highlight of our celebration and we thank Nifty Dart for his expertise in this area. Our Ambassador has been a shearer as well and was able to handle the antique hand held machine and shear one of the sheep as well as giving a running commentary or what was happening. Thank you to those helpers who did the hard part of turning the wheel.

This year we were privileged to have Paul Cavanaugh, guitarist and singer from Woolomin, provide us with lovely background music which was much appreciated by great number of people. Thanks Paul and Patricia.

Thanks also to Councillor Charles Impey representing Tamworth Regional Council for sharing in our celebration, to Gae Sipple for the Trivia questions and answers!, to the Department of Education for use of a fantastic venue and to Georgia and Lindsey, two amazing young people whose help is always freely and cheerfully given. To all committee members, thank you for another great Australia Day.

I'm sure everyone felt Chairperson Robert and Emcee Stephen did a wonderful job.

To those who attended, we appreciate your effort to make our Australia Day Celebration a success. We know, that like us, you came away with a sense of pride to be called Australian.

And last but by no means least, a huge thank you to our wonderful Lions Club - few in numbers maybe, but way out in front with service and helpfulness in our community.
