Nundle District Lions Club

Members of the Nundle Lions visited Quirindi Lions for an enjoyable evening at the local RSL Club. Dinner was followed by a talk on "Angel Care Flights" and the operatives of the planes. Nundle Lions meet on the 2nd and 4th Wednesday of each month at the Peel Inn commencing at 7.30 pm. David Leonard. Publicity Officer.

The Great Nundle Dog Race

Start training your dog!

The Great Nundle Dog Race will be on again on Sunday 5th May Come along for a fun day for all the family—including the dog!

A gold coin donation will gain entry to the ground and the first race is at 10.30am. There are many races to enter such as the House Dog Races, Mongrel Invitation Stakes and Juvenile Canine Mini Stakes. If your dog can jump onto the back of a ute there is the Doggy High Jump, or if he loves to chase then you might try him in Stumpy's Circular Dog Derby. There are great prizes to be won.

The main race is The Great Nundle Dog Race, which is open to bona fide working dogs only. District graziers and station hands pit their pride and joy working dogs against each other to keep the tradition alive of finding the fastest dog. Of course, these days it's all about keeping the dog on track to run the hundred metre sprint, and those dogs that are both fast and well-trained usually make it to the end!

Nundle Bushwalking Social Club

The group had an enjoyable day at our last meeting. The 14 members attending said it was a good walk and came back ready for lunch and refreshments.

The next meeting is at the Log Cabin Lookout Rd Hanging Rock Saturday 6th April commencing at 10.00am BYO everything, BBQ facilities are available. Visitors welcome. Inquiries to David 0490 759 166.

Nundle Hanging Rock Mature Men's Group.

We meet at the Mt Misery Gold Mine café at 10.00 am, we are a small group and enjoy a "cuppa and conversation" and one another's company. Feel free to come along and join us, our meeting ends at midday. There is a small donation of $2.00. Please contact David on 0490 759 166.

Nundle Memorial Hall

The Nundle Memorial Hall Committee are working towards demolishing the existing kitchen and rebuilding a new kitchen facility for use by the Nundle Community

This will be a great community facility and the Nundle Memorial Hall are asking for community help by donations towards the costs involved in this undertaking—if you can help or for more information please contact Margaret Schofield on 0411694948
